In the blink of an eye, Susy duplicated herself...and there were two.

Eli Resnick and Anna Resnick have always been best buddies.

Joey Jayachandran waits for his big brother Shawn to take him home.

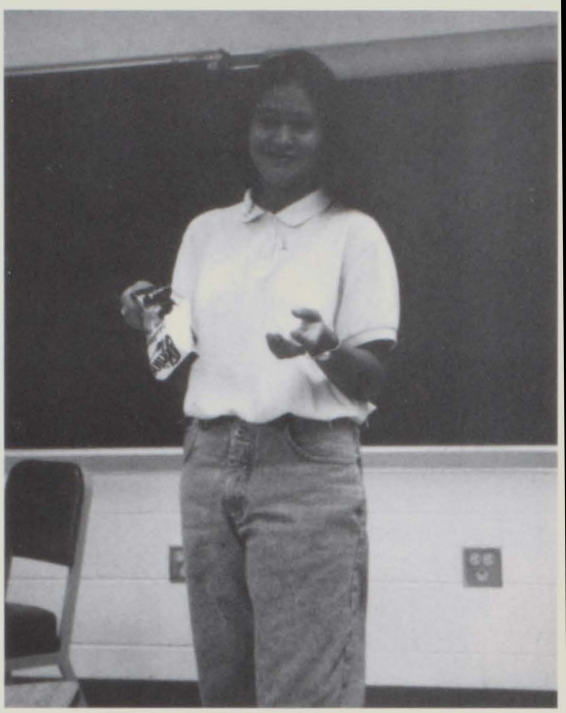
Amazingly, we find Kavon Atabaki and his sister not fighting.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

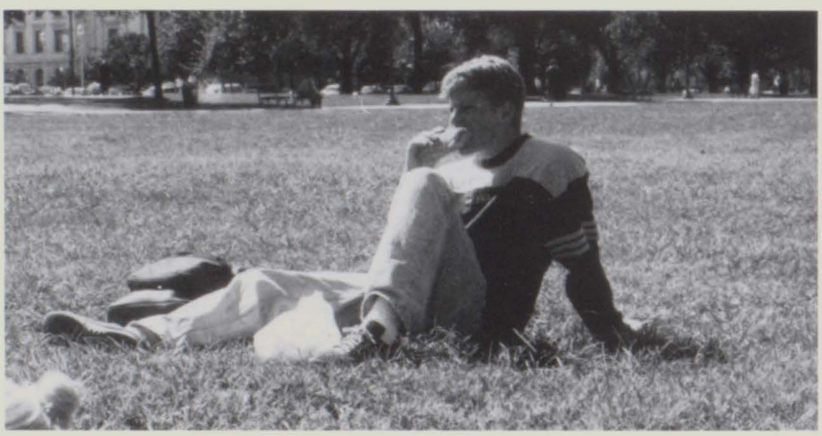
No one wants to get caught stuffing their faces

Left:"MMM...This is great tasting yogurt."

Far Right: Doritos always make the nutrition break fulfilling.



Below: Vanessa Matthews got the shrunken version of Friday's donuts.



The grass was soft and green. The sun shone down upon the perfect sandwich, layered lettuce, tomato, and a perfect assortment of meat...

I wonder what Joey Moore and Claire Crusin were laughing at.

Mason Students Have Fun Goofing off

Senior Charles Bowers gives his imitation of Bullwinkle.

You thought the seniors were wokring hard painting the press box, but the hidden camera captures this confidential picture of Sarah Romer goofing off.

Boxhead! Was this really goofing off? Maybe it was a school project.

The goofing off went a little too far that time (just ask Mandy Lucas).

"Hip Hop Hooray Ho..."

Vanessa Barber gives the camera a playful grin.

"This is sooo boring. Can we go on to something else??" asks sophomore Karen Ray.

These three were caught on film just before they collapsed following a steep hike up Monteiquer.

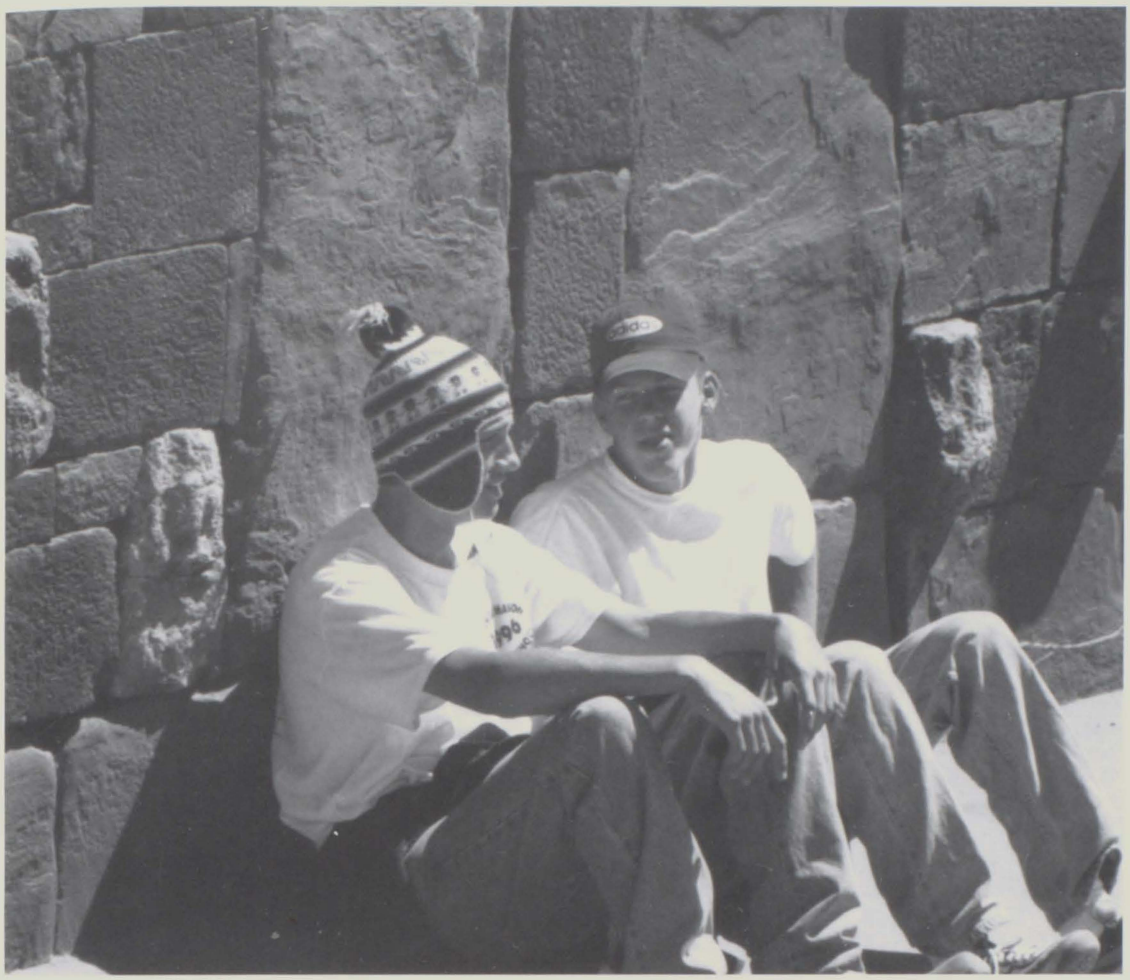
Smiles were inevitable when students found shade from the hot French sun.

One of the favorite hobbies of Mason's French exchange students was the highly competitive rock throw.



Bolivia

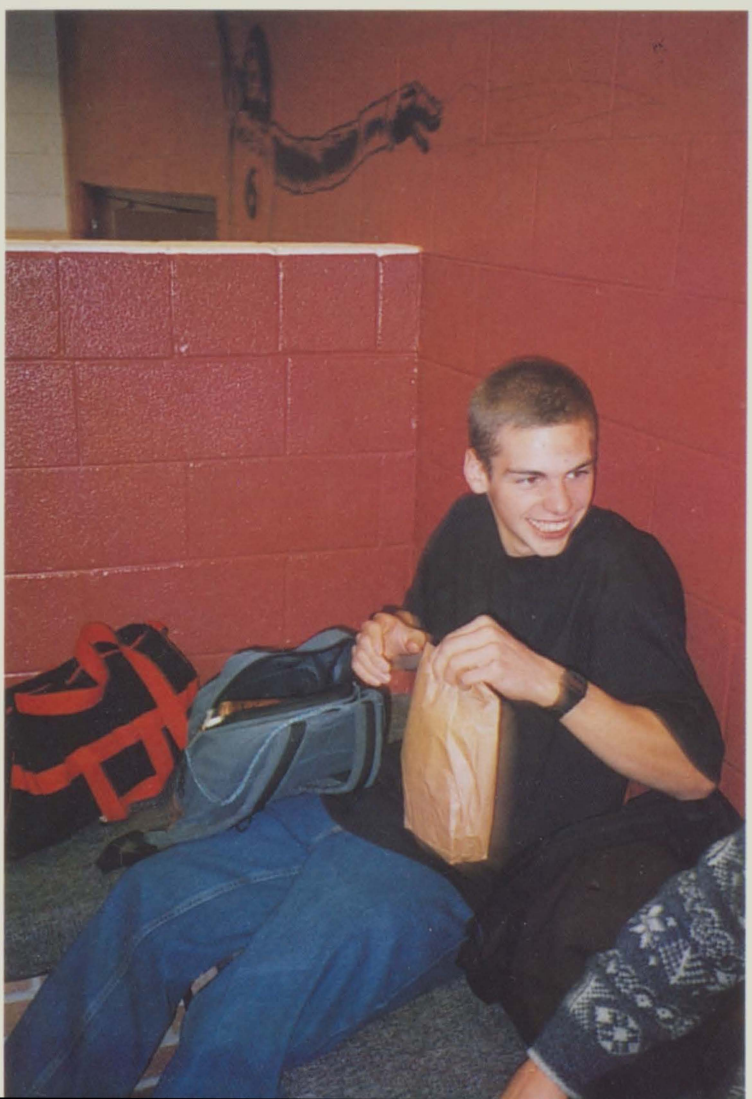
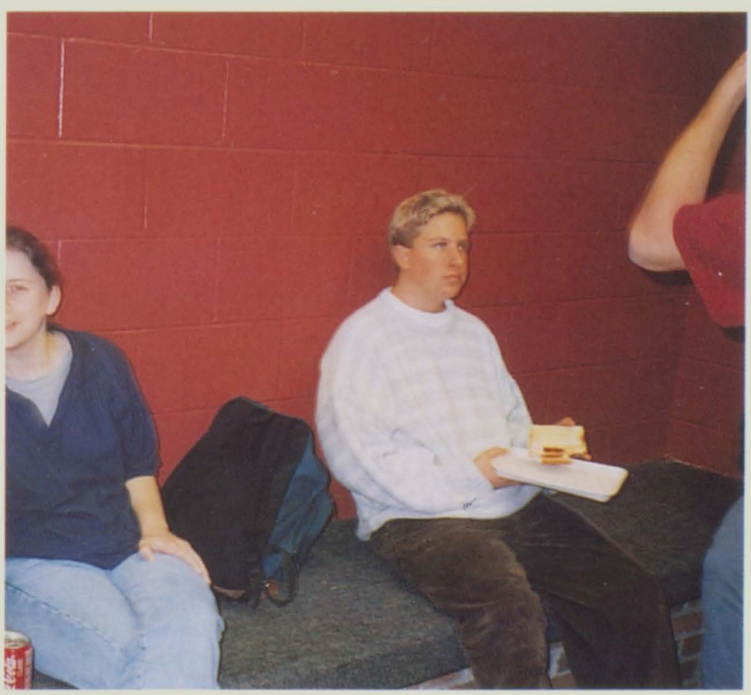
Seniors Hanging Out

Closing your eyes helps you chew, as Senior Jessica Lehman so aptly demonstrates.



FILLING UP THE DOWN TIME

So, here we are, Seniors, on the top of the Mason heirarchy! And, for those of us who have planned our high school schedules well, that means the privileges of open periods, late arrival, early dismissal, and open campus. All of the seniors most defintely use these times wisely- mostly for the very important purposes of clearing our minds and just hanging out. Whether it's killing time before hitting the gym for practice or unwinding before starting another lengthy paper, Seniors can be found all over Mason, just chillin' out. Our favorite spots are the alcoves and the Senior Courtyard - both spacious areas with ample space to stretch out and relax, eat some lunch, spread our books out, or just hang with friends. Outside of school, "hanging out" means a lot of very different things, from curling up with a good book to playing sports, and everything inbetween. On the weekends, Mason's Seniors can be found around the area doing anything and everything under the sun to have fun and enjoy these best years of our lives. After all, with all of the stresses of Senior year, haven't we earned our rest and relaxation?



" NO MINE!" exclaims senior Michael Hoffman

With the guidance of Coach Kelly Higgins and captains Anna Resnick, K.C. Gardner and Denise Horacek, the Varsity team was quite successful against their opponents. The team always improves every year. Though the team had some losses they still managed with a great overall record. This years' team was filled with many talented players which made the it difficult for their opponents to defeat.

SOCCER

The leadership of seniors led the Mason Varsity soccer team to a great and successful season. The soccer season held many ups and downs for these hard-working players. Never the less, the varsity boys felt that they gained experience and are hopefully building for future years.

George Mason Mustangs are always on the run.

Mason football players are always aggressive with their opponents.

After a rough season for the Varsity football team, they still ended with hopeful optimism for next year. The team is still young and inexperienced, but they still felt that they did their best. Unfortunately, the lack of experience cost the team in many games, but their mistakes on the field were used as a learning device in practice.

The thing with basketball is, we would always know who would win.

"I said, outta my way!"

Maggie Olson manages to steal the ball while the other team looks on helplessly.

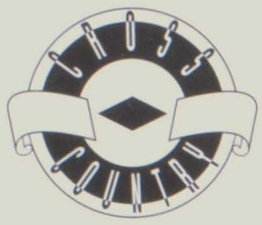
Gee, Page wasn't even close on that one.

Unfortunately, Beth failed to realize that she had dropped the ball.

"We're more like a family than a team," commented one Lady Mustang.

This year's varsity team accomplished many things this season. Though they did not win the state championship however they still came out outstanding, as usual.

The girls worked intensely throughout the season. They won the majority of their games and stayed on top in their region. The seventeen weeks of their season proved to be very successful and hopeful for next season.



For the GM cross-country team, the 1996 season has been a true test of fortitude. From the preposterously hilly course of the first meet to the unseasonably sweltering regionals, the endurance essential to participate in these meets and Clark Lindgren's demanding program definitely made team cuts unnecessary.

This means, however, that those valiant souls who reveled through the entire season were brought all the closer to one another. One outside observer declared, "Last year, the girls' basketball team came in second in the state. Second in the state! When they lost their final game, they came home dragging their tails behind them. There should've been bands playing for them. In cross-country, even if you're coming in dead last, the whole team is cheering for you." -Brett H.

"Which way to the finish line?"

Here we see Meghan, Kerry, and Debbie preparing to overtake their last opponent.

"That's it, we can go home now, right?....Right?" asks Girls' captain Kerry Lutz.

Stacey dominates an evil foe.

An exciting shot of the Mustangs warming up for a game against the evil cougars of Rappahannock.

The Mustangs were often seen quietly shaking hands after a victory.

VOLLEYBALL

The George Mason Mustang Girls Volleyball team had an outstanding finish to a very difficult season. "We had many strikes against us before the season even began." For the past two years, both the JV and Varsity teams were coached by Fred Chao. This year the teams faced with a challenge of adjusting their styles to those of new coaches Krichet Kaldmaa and Patti Scheunamann.

In the beginning of the seaon, the girls suffered some tough losses, but they really held together by the end. They went on to beat Manassas Park, the #1 team, and to earn the distinction of Bull Run District runner up. The team's success generated by some wonderful players. Stacy made the Bull Run all district second team. The ladies finished a difficult season on a great note!

-Stacy Rosholt

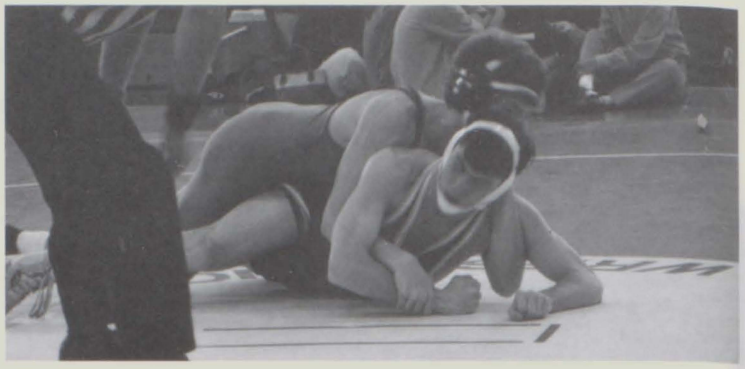
As she is from Virginia, the Rebel Yell comes naturally to Jamie Spear.

Mandy Lucas' hit evades an attempted spike as the Mustangs speed to a home victory.

WRESTLING

The small George Mason Wrestling thrived well this year despite facing problems of desertion and injuries. The wrestlers pulled together to produce the most successful season in recent history. Although forfeiting 5 out of 14 weight-classes, the team was able to accumulate 5 teams wins during the season. The post-season also proved to be a triumphant one for the wrestlers. Jason Daube, Gurvinder the notorious "Donut King" Bhangu, Giovanni Fernandez, and Eric Deschamps all qualified for the state tournament in Salem, Virginia. Gurvinder and Giovanni each won one match, while Team Captains Eric and Jason took 4th and 6th, respectively. Young sophomore Greg Jacobs as an alternate. Despite the hard work, time and effort, this season was a lot of fun for the team. Newcomers James Evans and Brain Robey helped solidfy the team along with Jeremy Schutte and Andrew O'Brien.

Pinning another opponent (self-explanatory)



Junior Gurvinder Bhangu makes a winning pin for George Mason. (For an even better look, turn it upside down!!)

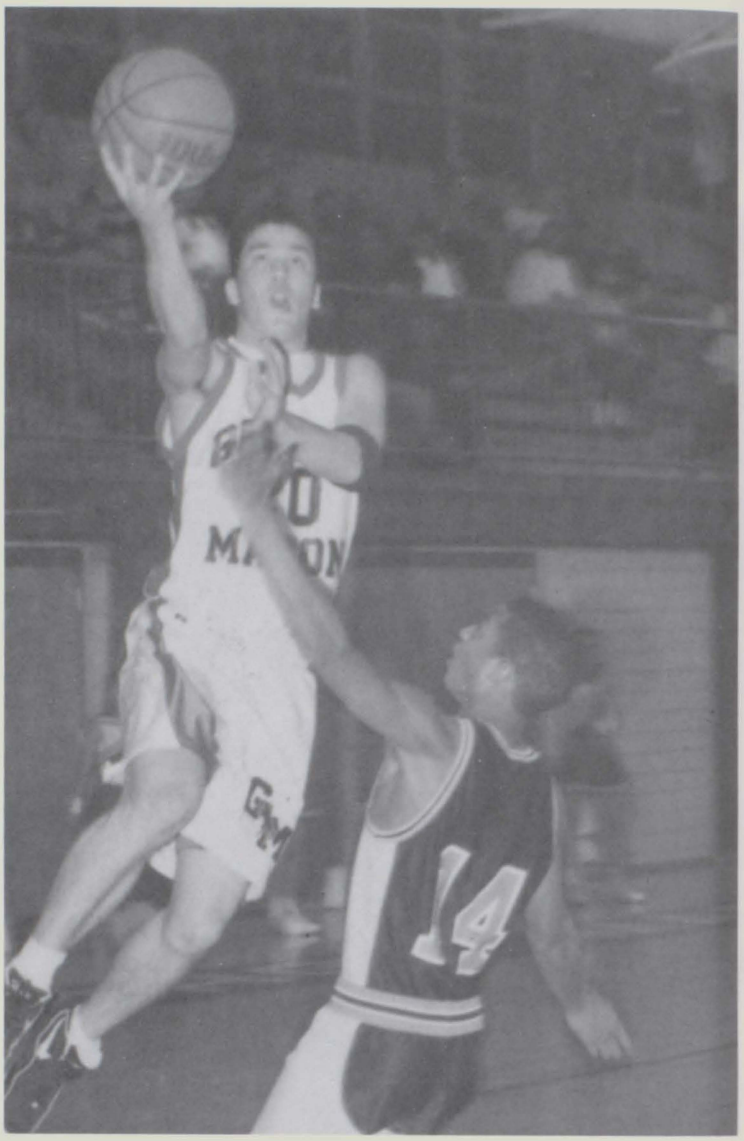
Boys Basketball

Is that Eddie or Michael?



The opponents can only look on in awe as the Mustangs once again dominate the court.

Jon-Michael Lemon and John Florence orchestrate impressive moves, but John has the advantage of silly socks.

Eddie Jordan, who had the highest scoring season of any Mason basketball player this decade, is shown here escaping from three defenders against Stonewall Jackson.

"Jason has some great low post moves," thinks Jon-Michael, "if only this were one of them."

BASKETBALL

Under the extraordinary tutelage of Coach Bill Sweek the George Mason Varsity Boys Basketball team was able to end the season strong after a poor start. Relying on good team defense led by senior captains Dan Degnan and Jon-Michael Lemon the mustangs stayed in many games. The offense guard was led by senior captain and 1st Team All-District Eddie Jordan, whose sazzling moves and deadly moves and deadly jump shots reaked havoc on opposing defenses. Second Team All-District sophomore Jason Motlagh was a major contributer for the mustang defense. Despite losing in the District Tournament to Rappahanock, a team they had defeated twice in the regular season, the team has to be proud of all it has accomplished.

Robert Durham's foul shots always helped George Mason take the lead.

George Mason basketball players are often challenged by their opponents.

TRACK & FIELD

The 1996 track season was filled with strong performances. There was an outstanding showing at the distric meet with twelve members qualifying for regionals. Coaches Harry Shovlin and Tony Green were pleased with everyone's performance. Out of the nine girls and three boys, five girls and two boys qualified for the state meet at the University of Virginia. Everybody at State's came home with a medal. The 4x400m relay team of Leigh Andrews, Charissa Bautista, Angela Cincotta, and Debbie Ferrari finished in first place. Bautista also brought home a gold in the 400m. Katia Fredrickson took seventh in the 3200 run, and Alex Mejias finished with a sixth place spot in the 110m high hurdles. The team's outlook is strong for 1997, despite the loss of six seniors.

Charissa Bautista upholds her standing as one of the fastest women in the state.

What great team spirit!

Dan Degnan goes for the home stretch of another victorious relay.

Leigh Andrews and Angela Cincotta in the throngs of adrenaline.

Why are there so many songs about rainbows,
And what's on the other side?
Rainbows are visions, but only illusions,
And rainbows have nothing to hide.

So we've been told, and some choose to believe it,
I know they're wrong, wait and see.
Someday we'll find it, the rainbow connection;
The lovers, the dreamers, and me.

What's so amazing that keeps us star-gazing
And what do we think we might see?
Someday we'll find it, the rainbow connection,
The lovers, the dreamers, and me.
